UL Lafayette is providing an Educate Louisiana Grant, campus job and additional services to students in the Louisiana Educate Program. In return, students are required to make the following commitments:

- (1) If admitted to the program and you accept, you are committing to (a) attending Freshman Orientation, (b) living in a residence hall with Louisiana Educate Program students as part of a community cohort for the first year and then living in any residence hall during the second and subsequent years at UL Lafayette, (c) meeting with an Academic Success Coach for 30 minutes per week or at the discretion of the Coach, (d) attending study hall for 6 – 10 hours each week as determined by the Academic Success Coach, and (e) participating in (4) Success Programs each semester as determined by the Student Affairs Division and the Office of Student Success. You acknowledge that your grants and work study are conditioned upon these commitments.
- (2) If you are admitted to the program and you accept, you commit to withdraw all applications submitted to other colleges and universities. However, you do not have to withdraw other applications until you have received your financial aid award notification.

Louisiana Educate Program Overview

Overview

The Louisiana Educate Program will accept a cohort of students who are eligible for the maximum Federal Pell Grant and the Louisiana TOPS program. Students accepted into this program will receive additional support and grants that are designed to make college truly affordable and provide the support and services for each student to be successful.

Program Components

Offices and Systems

- A personal admissions officer to answer questions and provide assistance with the admissions process.
- A personal financial aid counselor to provide assistance with the financial aid application & payment processes.
- A personal scholarship counselor to provide assistance to the students who qualify for ULLafayette academic scholarships.
- A designated freshman orientation at which all new Louisiana Educate Program participants attend. At orientation there will be a special breakout session for Louisiana Educate Program students at which students will meet the UL Lafayette Support team and learn more about the program.

Academic

- A personal academic success coach to provide all academic advising for the first two years of college. During your junior and senior years you will be advised by your assigned college academic advisor.
- Required study hall with academic tutoring for a designated number of hours each week.

Engagement and Social Belonging

- Live on campus in the residence hall during your first year where Louisiana Educate participants will live together, based on gender, and be part of a Community Cohort.
- You will also live on campus during your second year, but you get to choose your residence hall and roommate.
- A campus work-study job for 9-12 hours each week.
- A co-curricular component designed to get the students involved and engaged on campus.
